Innovation Meets Intention.

Each year, our in-house design team delves into emerging cultural and design trends to create products that not only align with consumer preferences but also prioritize functionality and modern aesthetics. By integrating circular design principles—such as using renewable or recycled materials and ensuring product longevity—we deliver solutions that are both stylish and responsible. Additionally, our collaborations with brand partners allow us to curate a thoughtfully selected range of products that embody these values.

Look for these three icons throughout this gift guide to identify products that are guaranteed to be on-trend this holiday season.

Lasting Luxury

A conscious shift towards products with enduring value and refined quality.

Modern Utility

Workwear is transformed into everyday essentials that combine style, utility, and modern values.

Social Sports

The rise of recreational sports inspires products that enhance shared experiences.

betterway™

Corporate Social Responsibility

We believe meaningful gifts can create a positive impact. Our betterway™ products reflect this commitment, meeting standards across four pillars: Preferred Materials, Cleaner Materials, Carbon Accountability, and Community Impact. Many of these products proudly meet multiple criteria.

Look for the betterway™ icon throughout this guide to easily find gifts that support a better way forward.

Look for the carbon footprint icon throughout the gift guide to identify items where we've measured emissions.
